PRESENTS

“Hypothesis”

A Tapestry of Expression, fiber art show

Opening Friday January 19, 2024 5-9pm

Denver, Colorado — Fiber artist, Talia Johns, is proud to announce her inaugural US solo exhibition, “Hypothesis”. This contemporary fiber art show will debut at 931 Gallery in the Art District on Santa Fe, showcasing a collection of intricate and thought-provoking artwork with a unique approach to fiber as a medium for artistic expression.

Exhibit features a series of environmentally conscious fiber and mixed media artworks that explore rebirth, renewal and impermanence of life, demonstrating the artist's keen eye for detail and a mastery of the craft through the delicate and masterful use of fiber.

"Hypothesis" opens its doors to the public on Friday, January 19, 2024 at 5:30pm at 931 Gallery, located at 931 Santa Fe Dr., Suite 150, Denver, CO 80204. The exhibition will run until Sunday February 18, offering art enthusiasts and collectors a chance to witness the fiber art of Talia Johns in the solo spotlight.
